

We are looking for someone with strong accounting and managerial skills as an Accounting Manager with at least 5 years of accounting management experience for a $60M distribution company with 25 locations. Individual will be responsible for supervising accounting department and overseeing financial reporting to senior management, board of directors and lender. Must be proficient in Microsoft Office software, accounting degree required and CPA preferred, but not required. Good oral and written communications skills required. Some travel may be required. Salary is $60-80K depending on experience and qualifications.

Controlled Products Systems Group, Inc.

Ray Elliott

relliott@controlledproducts.com